PERSONAL PROJECTS

Web Security APIs (06/2022 - 07/2022)

- Web Security APIs was a project about creating APIs for web developers that can be directly integrated into any website to provide password protections and data encryptions.
- The Application was created using technologies of MEAN Stack.

MyResume (12/2021 - 01/2022)

- MyResume was a personal portfolio website created using MEAN Stack and deployed using CI Pipeline to GitHub on Heroku.

Docx Copier (03/2021 - 04/2021)

- During corona time all the assignments were online and my friends asked me to let them copy my assignments and they just changed their names and roll numbers.
- So I created a python script to automate this by just parsing the whole word document and changing the name and enrollment number to their choice in one go.

Library Management System using JavaScript (04/2020 - 05/2020)

- When I first learned javascript I created this LMS system which I am most proud of because this was my first real project and I created a single-page application just by using vanilla javascript, HTML, and CSS.
- I used local storage to store data.
